

ZOOQUARIA

Advertising Opportunities

EAZA Executive Office, March 2010

Zooquaria is the quarterly magazine of the European Association of Zoos and Aquaria, read by thousands of zoo professionals across Europe and beyond. Each 32-page issue is packed with news reports, feature articles and opinion pieces covering the wide spectrum of issues facing zoos and aquariums today. Over a period of more than ten years it has become an essential source of information for EAZA members, including Directors, CEOs, curators, keepers, vets, marketers and educators.

1,000 copies of each issue are printed with most of these mailed to EAZA members and other interested individuals. The remaining copies are distributed at EAZA conferences and events. An electronic PDF version of the magazine is also made available through the EAZA website and the full EAZA mailing list is notified when a new issue is published. Well over a thousand visitors clicked through to the magazine in the month following the release of the Spring 2010 issue. All of this adds up to a unique opportunity to directly target the decision makers in Europe's zoos and aquariums.

Advertising Rates

A limited amount of advertising space is available in each issue – up to a maximum of six pages out of a total of 32. The applicable rates are presented below. To reserve space in the next issue of the magazine, please complete the form on the following page.
