

Assistant Curator, Knowsley Safari Park
Salary negotiable + accommodation + pension

An exciting opportunity has arisen to work at one of Europe's leading safari parks.

We are looking for someone who is methodical and organized in their approach as well as being a confident communicator who can cope well under pressure, multi task and manage a varied workload.

The successful candidate will have substantial experience of working within the field as well as considerable supervisory skills with the ability to lead and motivate a large team. Candidates should be educated to degree level and have an understanding that the management of species held within a large safari park is different to the management of those within a traditional zoological collection. Candidates should be computer literate (Arks would be advantageous) and should hold a clean driving license. Firearms training is an advantage, however full training will be provided.

You will work on a full time basis working 5 out of 7 days in the week. Hours will include bank holidays and weekends.

Please check the website for more details on the Company – www.knowsley.com

Please submit all applications in writing with a CV to:
