

Amphibian Conservation Husbandry

June 2012

This course was offered by Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust as a collaborative course with approval from the EAZA Academy. The course was co-directed by leading amphibian experts from Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust and Chester Zoological Gardens, with help from additional external experts. The course is also officially endorsed by Amphibian Ark and Amphibian Survival Alliance.

Details of institution are correct for the course date but may change over time.

NAME		INSTITUTION
Kristofer	Försäter	Nordens Ark
Mel	Frost	Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust
Andrea	Fuentes	Museo de Historia Natural Alcide d'Orbigny, Bolivia
Kim	Goodfield	Marwell Wildlife
Chris	Michaels	University of Manchester
Flavio	Silva	Private breeder, London
Roland	Simon	Réserve de la Haute Touche, Muséum National d'Histoire Naturelle, France
Ruth	Smith	Chester Zoological Gardens
Wendy	Van Neste	Durrell Wildlife Conservation Trust