

Final draft programme joint TAG chairs meeting and Parallel TAG meetings

Please note this is a final draft version of the programme and minor changes might still occur

Sunday, 29 April 2018

8.00-18.00: Pre-conference visit to Veszprem Zoo and Lake Balaton (exact times to be confirmed)

Registration desk will be open during the day from Monday until Friday. EAZA Events Coordinator and Budapest Zoo staff will be available for questions and support on Sunday 29th

Monday, 30 April 2018

08.30-17.15: Parallel meetings for TAGs (1) (see separate schedule)

14.00-17.00: WAZA CPM midyear meeting (closed)

19.00–21.00: Icebreaker joint TAG chairs

Tuesday, 1 May 2018

8.30–10.30: Opening session – moderator Danny de Man, EAZA

- Welcome address host institution – Miklós Persányi, Budapest Zoo and Botanical Garden
- Welcome address host region (EAZA) – Thomas Kauffels, EAZA chair, Opel-Zoo Kronberg
- Welcome address WAZA - Simon Tonge, chair of the Committee for Population Management (WAZA CPM)

- Keynote presentation Onnie Byers, Conservation Planning Specialist Group (CPSG), member of IUCN SSC Steering Committee
- EAZA new Population Management structure/using the ICAP approach for setting regional targets Raymond van der Meer and Kristin Leus EAZA

- Introduction rounds audience

10.30–11.00: Coffee/tea break

11.00–13.00: Session title Assess, Plan, Act and the role of Taxon Advisory Groups - moderator Candice Dorsey

- Red-listing and the priorities for TAGs in relation to conservation planning and ex situ conservation action of Asian Wild Cattle - James Burton, chair IUCN SSC Asian Wild Cattle Specialist Group, EAZA Cattle and Camelid TAG vice chair, Chester Zoo [to be confirmed]
- Ex situ conservation needs and action for invertebrates, Mark Bushell, IUCN SG Grasshopper Specialist Group, EAZA Terrestrial Invertebrate TAG chair, Bristol Zoo
- The ICAP process as a basis to develop the AZA and EAZA RCPs for Canid and Hyeonids - Karen Bauman and Raymond van de Meer (AZA and EAZA TAG chairs)
- Regional and Global collection planning priorities for Galliformes, Chris Holmes, AZA Galliformes TAG chair, Houston Zoo
- Using an integrated approach towards developing the new AZA Prosimian TAG RCP – Christie Eddy (Columbus Zoo and Aquarium) and Gina Ferrie (Disney Animal Kingdom)
- Regional Collection Planning and Ambassador Programmes in Australasia, James Biggs, ZAA

- The Asian Species Action Partnership (ASAP) and the needs for ex situ conservation action (Nerissa Chao, Singapore Zoo and Danny de Man, EAZA)
- PAAZA's involvement in African penguin population management and conservation action, John Werth, PAAZA

13.00–14.00: Lunch

14.00–18.00: Workshop session, moderator Tracy Rehse

- Intro to the workshops (45 minutes / 1 hr, leaving 3 hrs for the workshops)
- Involvement of TAGs in Conservation Action Planning; what goes well, how can we work together more efficiently, what challenges/hurdles do we need to overcome.
- Optimising the use of the ICAP process across regional associations
- Ex situ conservation action under the Asian Species Action Partnership (ASAP) – role and contributions of TAGs
- Data-sharing in an integrated world: ZIMS for ex situ conservation planning and progressing science and research. Facilitators Dalia Conde, Katlyn Mucha and Doug Verduzco, Species360

[16.00: Coffee/tea break]

19.00: Free evening / Optional Danube Cruise

Wednesday, 2 May 2015

8.30–9.00: Keynote talk: The importance of providing professional zoo and aquarium community input into CITES, Kris Vehrs, AZA (to be confirmed)

9.00-10.00: Population Planning and Management Updates from across the WAZA networks – moderator James Biggs

- Population management across the zoos in India, Brij Kishor Gupta, Central Zoo Authority, New Delhi, India
- Cooperative Population Management activities of ALPZA with respect to the Association's Conservation Strategy, Christian Olaciregui Pineda, Fundación Botánica y Zoológica de Barranquilla and ALPZA
- PAAZA's involvement in Southern cheetah population management and conservation action, Tracy Rhese, PAAZA

10.00-10.30: Reports back from yesterday's workshop sessions – moderator James Biggs

10.30–11.00: Coffee/tea break

11.00–13.00: Collection Planning South East Asia, Japan and China - moderator Martin Zordan

- Setting priorities for SEAZA Regional Population Management programmes; recent developments, successes and challenges for the future – Wendy Chua, Singapore Zoo, SEAZA rep on CPM
- JAZA's Collection Plan and Population Management Programmes, Kazutoshi Takami, Osaka Municipal Tennoji Zoological Gardens, Hooded Crane ISB keeper, Head of JAZA global conservation affairs division
- Out of Taipei Zoo: Finding our way to contribute to regional and local one plan approach conservation, Jim Kao, Taipei Zoo
- Population Management Programmes in Thailand (Boripat Siaroonrat, ZPO – to be confirmed)
- Population Management in China, CAZG (to be confirmed)

- Global Collection Planning for threatened Asian song birds (speaker to be confirmed)
- How the Global Species Management Plans (GSMPs) for Anoa, Banteng, Baburisa and Sumatran tiger contribute to building population management capacity for a national zoo and aquarium association within the range country. (speaker to be confirmed)

Q and A session

13.00–14.00: Lunch

14.00-16.00: Population Management and Animal Welfare Session, moderator Simon Tonge

- Keynote presentation: Population Management and Animal Welfare Science, Heather Bacon, Edinburgh University
- The WAZA Welfare Strategy - with emphasis on the Population Management chapter, Sabrina Brando, WAZA
- Incorporating welfare into animal management strategies, Dave Powell, AZA Reproductive Management Center, AZA Caprinae TAG chair, St Louis Zoo
- Wearing two hats managing one population of a Critically Endangered species. Holly Farmer, chair EAZA Animal Welfare Working Group and EEP coordinator for Macaca nigra, Paignton Zoo
- Genetic fitness and animal welfare (speaker to be confirmed)

PANEL DISCUSSION

16.00 Close of the meeting

16.30 Bus departs for visit to Budapest Zoo

20.00: Joint dinner at Budapest Zoo

Thursday, 3 May 2018

8.30-18.00: Parallel meetings for TAGs (2) (see separate schedule)

Friday, 4 May 2018

8.30-18.00: Parallel meetings for TAGs (3) (see separate schedule)

Saturday 5 May 2018

Post Conference Tour – Bird watching and P-horse tour to Hungarian Puszta