

Marwell Wildlife Nutrition Conference 2018 - Day 1

Thursday 25 January 2018

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 8.30 - 9.00 | Registration |
| 9.00 - 9.05 | Welcome
James Cretney – Chief Executive at Marwell Wildlife |
| 9.05 – 9.35 | Key note speech
Dr. Tim Woodfine – Director of Conservation at Marwell Wildlife |
| 9.35 – 10.05 | Palm oil in animal feed: an underestimated ethical problem
Dr. Stanislav Lhota – Primatologist, zoologist & conservationist, Usti nad Labem Zoo / Czech University of Life Sciences, Prague |
| 10.05 – 10.35 | Ethical purchasing of zoo diets and consideration of animal welfare standards
Dr. Duncan East – Head of Sustainability at Marwell Wildlife |
| 10.35 – 11.05 | Tea / Coffee break / Poster presentations |
| 11.05 – 11.35 | Towards sustainable production & utilisation of bamboo for species in captivity
Andy Beer – Nutritionist, Royal Zoological Society of Scotland |
| 11.35 – 12.05 | Producing insects in the zoo
Dr. Dennis Oonincx, Researcher (Nutrition and Entomology) |
| 12.05 – 12.35 | The use of insect meal in foods for aquarium and pond fish - is it the future for fish nutrition?
Dr. David Pool – Managing Director, Fish Science Ltd |
| 12.35 – 13.35 | Lunch |
| 13.35 – 14.35 | Tour of Marwell’s brand new “Energy for Life” facility
Gordon Campbell, Tropical House Project Advisor, Marwell Wildlife
Ross Brown, Animal Collection Manager, Marwell Wildlife |
| 14.35 – 14.55 | Tea / Coffee break / Poster presentations |
| 14.55 – 15.25 | Designing innovative systems for creating and storing food for captive herptile species
Kim Goodfield – Animal Keeper, Herptile Department, Marwell Wildlife |
| 15.25 – 15.55 | Body Condition Scoring Zoo Animals
Dr. Amanda Guthrie, DVM – Senior Veterinary Officer, Zoological Society of London |
| 15.55 – 16.00 | Close of Day |

Marwell Wildlife Nutrition Conference 2018 - Day 2

Friday 26 January 2018

8.30 - 9.00	Registration and Welcome
9.00 - 9.30	Understanding the nutritional requirements of the Critically Endangered Mountain Chicken Frog, (Leptodactylus fallax) Amanda Ferguson – Nutritionist and Research Coordinator, Zoological Society of London, London Zoo
9.30 – 10.00	An evaluation of Sloth Bear diets at Whipsnade Zoo Lewis Rowden – Research & Nutrition Officer, Zoological Society of London, London Zoo
10.00 – 10.30	Cassowary Diets: An evaluation of feeding practices in EAZA zoos and a case study of diet change for this species at Chester Zoo Dr. Cathrine Sauer, Nutrition Officer, Chester Zoo
10.30 – 11.00	Tea / Coffee break / Poster Presentations
11.00 – 11.30	Diet drift in zoos Dr. Amy Plowman – Director of Conservation & Education, Whitley Wildlife Conservation Trust
11.30 – 12.00	Probiotics as an alternative disease mitigation in wildlife Dr. Jorge Gutierrez-Merino – Lecturer in Food Microbiology, University of Surrey
12.00 – 12.30	A review of geriatric Hoofstock nutrition at Marwell Wildlife Lauren Samet – Animal Nutritionist, Inspired Pet Nutrition Ltd
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 14.00	Understanding chimpanzee dietary requirements: The macronutrient composition of wild and cultivated foods and nutrient balancing Dr. Nicola Bryson-Morrison – Primate Nutritional Ecologist & Conservationist, University of Kent
14.00 – 14.30	Improving browse perception – leaf by leaf Louise Jakobsen, Senior Keeper, Zoological Society of London
14.30 – 15.00	Delegate Feedback Forms
	Close of Conference
15.00 – 16.00	Optional walk around the zoo

* Please note – programme content and schedule is subject to change