

EAZA Membership Fee 2018/2019

Approved by EAZA AGM, April 2017

The EAZA Membership fee supports the strategic activities of the Association and provides for a range of benefits to members. These include:

- The prestige that accompanies membership of an association that includes some of the world's leading zoos and aquariums
- Support and assistance from the EAZA Executive Office, a full-service facility in Amsterdam staffed by specialists in three main areas:
  - Conservation and Population Management: providing support on issues involving animal collections and conservation both at the institution and in the field
  - Communications and Membership: supporting Members with the latest news from across the network, internal and external communications and all membership issues
  - European Union Policy: support on EU policy and engagement for Members from our representative office in Brussels
- Access to the continent's most important conferences and forums for zoos and aquariums
- Discounted rates for EAZA Academy courses, state of the art professional development education for zoo and aquarium specialists
- Usage of the EAZA website, an online forum that allows Members to work together and share knowledge
- Accreditation to reinforce your credentials as a modern, progressive institution
- Access to and involvement in EAZA's population management programmes for over 400 species

<sup>1</sup>Explanation:

- The EAZA membership fee should be paid before 1 August 2018. Members that pay their membership fee after this date are obliged to pay €250 administration costs. Besides financial implications, certain membership services may also be terminated until payment has been received.

- These fees will be subject to a standard 3% annual increase to allow for inflation related to regular core expenses.
- The EAZA membership fee includes participation in EAZA Ex Situ Programmes (EEPs). For non-EAZA participants an EEP participation fee is charged.
- EAZA Corporate Members are subject to a different fee structure. Please contact the Director of Communications and Membership, David.Williams-Mitchell@eaza.net, for more information.
- This information is valid for the EAZA membership year running from 1 July 2018 through 30 June 2019.
